Trading futures or related securities involves the risk of principal and could further result in losses greater than the original investment or the funds in an account. The investor is responsible for all financial risks associated with an investment. You should not engage in trading unless and until you fully understand the transaction(s) and the extent of the financial exposure to losses exceeding principal investment. You should always consult your registered investment advisor before making any investment in futures or other levered products. Futures and options trading involves substantial risk and is only appropriate for those who have the qualifications, understanding, and risk capital for such investments. Additionally, in making an investment decision, individuals should always rely on their own examination of the offering and the principals involved in the investment vehicle, including the terms of the investment agreement and the merits or risks involved in such investments.
